Additional expenses may be necessary when applicant schools are located outside the state of Florida, or in states where there is no local UMAP Validator.

Additional travel expenses may include:

- Travel to and from the home/office of the closest validator.
- Mileage based on the current rate of UMC Conference and/or airfare.
- Lodging (2 nights or more)
- Meals during travel and during accreditation visit.

Additional travel expenses must be arranged by the Early Childhood Program requesting the accreditation visit.

Please discuss any concerns regarding the possibility of additional travel expenses BEFORE applying for a visit.

UMAP fees are subject to change with the approval of the UMAP Board of Directors.
